

Advocacy and Action Update, Spring 2019

UP is continuing to advocate for policyholders and disaster survivors in the media, legislature, and other public policy forums.

UP Executive Director Amy Bach had an impactful Spring:

- Providing expert testimony to the newly created California Governor's Commission on Catastrophic Wildfire Recovery; fighting against illegal coverage reduction after a wildfire-related loss
- Serving on a panel at the California Association of Realtors Lobby Day in Sacramento to advocate on behalf of California homeowners who have been dropped by their insurance companies
- Speaking to decision-makers and industry leaders at the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) International Insurance Forum in Washington, D.C.

Our hard work is paying off! The California Insurance Commissioner recently issued two bulletins to help ease survivors' claims processes. Both addressed issues that UP has been working to advance for years:

The information presented in this publication is for general informational purposes and is not a substitute for legal advice. If you have a specific legal issue or problem, United Policyholders recommends that you consult with an attorney. Guidance on hiring professional help can be found in the "Find Help" section of www.uphelp.org. United Policyholders does not sell insurance or certify, endorse or warrant any of the insurance products, vendors, or professionals identified on our website.

Source: <https://uphelp.org/advocacy-and-action-update-spring-2019/> Date: April 17, 2025

ensuring that survivors who want to purchase new homes after a loss don't have the value of land deducted, and recommending a grace period for ALE coverage when policyholders are experiencing delays in construction beyond their control.

Executive Director Amy Bach at the California Governor's Commission on Catastrophic
Wildfire Recovery

UP staffer Sandy Watts facilitated a recent community event for 2017 North Bay Fire survivors

featuring California Insurance Commissioner Ricardo Lara.

For more information, visit our Advocacy program page.

The information presented in this publication is for general informational purposes and is not a substitute for legal advice. If you have a specific legal issue or problem, United Policyholders recommends that you consult with an attorney. Guidance on hiring professional help can be found in the “Find Help” section of www.uphelp.org. United Policyholders does not sell insurance or certify, endorse or warrant any of the insurance products, vendors, or professionals identified on our website.

Source: <https://uphelp.org/advocacy-and-action-update-spring-2019/> Date: April 17, 2025