

Belt Painting v. TIG Insurance Company

Year: 2002

Court: New York State Court of Appeals

Case Number: 18328/00

New York State law should limit the application of ISO's standard-form pollution exclusions to industrial pollution of the environment and it should not be applied to avoid liability for routine premise/operations claims.

UP's brief was written pro bono by Eugene R. Anderson, Esq. John N. Ellison, Esq. and Richard P. Lewis, Esq. of Anderson Kill & Olick, PC. Of Counsel: Amy Bach, Esq.
