

Harrison, Francie vs. Unum Life Insurance Company of America

Year: 2002

Court: U.S. Court of Appeals, 1st Circuit

Case Number: Docket No. 05-1577

In absence of definition of “crime” in the policy, disability benefits should not be denied when first time offense was considered a “violation” and not a “crime.”

UP's brief was written pro bono by Eugene R. Anderson, Esq. of Anderson Kill & Olick. Of Counsel: Amy Bach, Esq.