

Rohm and Haas Company vs. Continental Casualty Company

Year: 1998

Court: Pennsylvania Supreme Court, Eastern District

Case Number: 00670PHL98 & 00671PHL98

Pennsylvania should require proof of fraud on an application for insurance by clear and convincing evidence and should not adopt a “known loss” standard which drastically lowers the insurer’s burden.

UP's brief was written pro bono by John A. Macdonald of Anderson Kill & Olick. Of Counsel: Amy Bach, Esq.