

Security Insurance Co of Hartford v. Lumbermens Mutual Casualty Company

Year: 2001

Court: Connecticut Appellate Court

Case Number: AC 21960

Drafting history sanctions the policyholder's right to designate which general liability insurance policies are liable to respond fully to a continuing injury. This is inconsistent with any "pro-rata" allocation among insurers.

UP's brief was written pro bono by C. William Tanzi, Esq., Eugene R. Anderson, Esq., Mark Garbowski, Brian T. Valery (Law Clerk) of Anderson Kill & Olick, PC. Of Counsel: Amy Bach, Esq.
