

The Everett Clinic, PLLC v. Premera and Premerafirst, Inc

Year: 2022

Court: Washington Court of Appeals Division 1

Case Number: 82687-5-1

In its amicus brief, United Policyholders takes a pro-consumer and pro-insurer position in the context of Washington's longstanding public policy commitment to price competition in the healthcare marketplace. UP's brief urges the Court to interpret a disputed agreement in a way that fosters competition and protects against the monopolistic pricing of services in a healthcare marketplace increasingly dominated by healthcare conglomerates.

Ian Birk of Keller Rohrback; Philip Talmadge of Talmadge Fitzpatrick