

Well Adjusted

Well Adjusted is a regular column in United Policyholders newsletter; “What’s UP.” The column features interviews with professionals throughout the United States with expertise in adjusting, processing or negotiating insurance claims.

June 2010: Masood Khan

Our interview with Masood Khan, who previously practiced law primarily representing insurers. Masood now represents policyholders as a public adjuster with Greenspan Adjusters International in their South San Francisco office. Read More.

February 2010: Charles “Dick” Tutwiler

Executive Director Bach interviews seasoned Florida public adjuster Charles “Dick” Tutwiler on a variety of topics including the state of the profession and when it makes sense to hire a public adjuster. Read More.

October 2009: Rich Csaposs

We recently spoke with UP Platinum-level Sponsor Rich Csaposs, who is based in the Sacramento area, about working with Auburn residents who lost their homes in the 49 Fire. The 49 Fire (Placer County, CA) burned 343 acres and 63 homes, as well as 3 commercial structures in September. Rich is the President of RC Advantage, a public adjusting firm. Read More.
