

Conversations Around the Fire' Turns to Insurance Strategies for Resilient Rebuilding

KRCB North Bay Public Radio

Yesterday, we heard a presentation from “Conversations Around the Fire” – an initiative hoping to guide local residents to greener, safer and more just ideas about rebuilding our community. One speaker at the conversation Monday night represented a group that helps answer questions about insurance, advocating for those seeking fair treatment.

United Policyholders is a nonprofit, formed after the Oakland Hills Fires of 1991. KRCB News Director Steve Mencher has more.
