

Flooding and water resources for Southern California

ABC 7 News

Want to know what the flood risk is in your area or how to protect your home during a storm? Check out the resources below.

Want to know what the flood risk is in your area? What about how to protect your home and family during a storm? Check out the resources below for more information.

- Look up your flood risk: Use our interactive tool to find out what the flood risk is in your area.
- UC Irvine Flood Lab: More information on the research and models from UCI's Flood Lab.
- Ready LA County: This site provides emergency preparedness information for flooding, rain, mudslides, wildfires, earthquakes, excessive heat, extreme cold, power outages and tsunamis.
- Contact LA County Public Works or call 800-675-HELP (4357) to take advantage of the services provided by Public Works, including assessments of flood risk.
- Water for LA County: This site provides information on stormwater capture, keeping water clean, where LA County water comes from and extreme weather changes.
- LA County Clean Safe Water Program: More information on the projects to retrofit flood and water infrastructure, as well as resources to get involved in future projects.
- Redesign LA: A collective of organizations developing resources to help others build multi-benefit water projects
- Southern California Water Coalition: A non-profit made up of nearly 200 members spanning Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside, Ventura, Kern and Imperial counties dedicated to taking on SoCal's water issues.
- California Department of Insurance flood resources: Information about how flood insurance works and ways to get in touch with the Department of Insurance if you have a question or problem

The information presented in this publication is for general informational purposes and is not a substitute for legal advice. If you have a specific legal issue or problem, United Policyholders recommends that you consult with an attorney. Guidance on hiring professional help can be found in the "Find Help" section of www.uphelp.org. United Policyholders does not sell insurance or certify, endorse or warrant any of the insurance products, vendors, or professionals identified on our website.

Source: <https://uphelp.org/flooding-and-water-resources-for-southern-california/> Date: May 10, 2024 with your insurance. You can also call 1-800-927-4357 or use the department's Consumer Hotline Chat.

- United Policyholders: A non-profit with a mission to be an information resource for insurance consumers in all 50 states.
- Orange County Public Works: Resources for flood protection in Orange County, including history and flood facts.
- Riverside County Flood Control: Information on programs and services provided by the Riverside County Flood Control and Water Conservation District. To report non-emergency flooding during business hours: 951-955-1200. After Hours: 951-955-1230.
- San Bernardino County Public Works/flood control: Information from San Bernardino County Public Works on what to do in case of a flood, real-time conditions and how to report flood problems. Business hours number 909-387-8063. After hours contact the Comm Center: 909-356-3805.
- Ventura County Public Works: Resources on watershed protection in Ventura County including projects and flood warning systems.