Fort Collins, Colorado – Larimer County will hold a public meeting in Loveland on Thursday, October 24 at 1p.m. for Larimer Flood 2013 Survivors on Flood Insurance Basics with United Policyholders.

The program, 'Roadmap to Recovery', at the Loveland City Council Chambers, 500 E. Third St., will be presented by United Policyholders, a non-profit consumer organization assisting disaster survivors for over 20 years. Residents whose homes were damaged or destroyed in the recent flooding and who have flood insurance are encouraged to attend as well as Larimer County officials, long term recovery aid workers and Case Managers. The program will be videotaped and rebroadcast on the County's web site. To find out more about what Larimer County is doing in flood recovery please visit the County's web site: Visit the web site: <http://larimer.org/flooding2013/>

Citizens are encouraged to sign up to receive new information published on the County's Flood Recovery web site. Information such as updates on road access, pertinent meetings and more is available.
