

NAIC Announces 35 Consumer Representatives for 2017

Insurance Journal

The National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) recently named 35 consumer liaison representatives for 2017. The 22 funded and 13 unfunded consumer representatives began their terms Jan. 1.

Eighteen of the funded consumer representatives participated in the program in 2017.

Established in 1992, the Consumer Liaison Program promotes consumer interaction with the NAIC's members, the insurance industry and interested parties.

Ted Nickel, NAIC president and Wisconsin insurance commissioner, said the consumer representatives "provide regulators with important guidance on consumer interests across the nation and contribute to the NAIC's mission."

The NAIC voted to increase the number of funded consumer representatives from 20 to 22 this past fall.
