Guest Speaker: John Trapani, CPA

For more than twenty years John Trapani, CPA has assisted taxpayers who experience a catastrophic loss and resolving their tax and financial issues that arise out of these extraordinary situations. John developed a personal perspective on the process of recovering, from his first-hand catastrophic loss experiences in the 1994 Northridge Earthquake.

This workshop will cover:

- Income tax benefits and reporting responsibilities that can help and hurt people who experienced a disaster loss
- Is there a loss or a gain? Tax year to claim a loss? Sell & buy or rebuild?
- Documenting and claiming insured and uninsured losses
- Tax consequences of insurance settlements, SBA loans, FEMA grants, etc.
- Special rules for federally declared disasters
