Free Recovery and Insurance Orientation Workshop

Free Recovery and Insurance
Orientation Workshop

Wednesday, October 25th, 6-8pm
Next door to the Local Assistance Center
[at the Unitarian Universalist Church]
547 Mendocino Ave, Santa Rosa, CA

Workshop Topic: Information and guidance on first steps on the road to recovery and navigating your insurance claim.

Who should attend? Homeowners and renters whose insured homes were damaged or destroyed in the wildfire. Attendees will receive a free copy of the "Wildfire" Disaster Recovery Handbook and have the opportunity to ask questions during a Q&A portion of the program.

Who will speak? Policyholder advocates Amy Bach and Karen Reimus, wildfire survivor Dawn Hopkins. Special announcements from Jewish Family & Children's Services about the emergency and long term recovery support services they provide including food, clothing, counseling, computer access and transportation.

The "Roadmap to Recovery" handbook is authored by Jewish Family and Children's Services and sponsored by United Policyholders, a non-profit consumer organization helping disaster survivors for over 30 years. For more information visit www.uphelp.org or call 1-800-286-5631. Bookends: front and back cover of book at the Local Assistance Center at 427 Mendocino Ave.

United Policyholders is hosting its first Roadmap to Recovery workshop in Santa Rosa for North Bay wildfire survivors in partnership with Jewish Family and Children's Services. The workshop will start at 6PM and will be right down the street from the Local Assistance Center at 547 Mendocino Ave. at the Unitarian Universalist Church in Santa Rosa.

Amy Bach and Karen Reimus will cover the first steps for fire survivors including an insurance recovery orientation and guidance on how to begin to navigate the insurance claim process.

There will be a Q&A session after the workshop if you have any questions on your own insurance claim.
